The Tudors and the English Reformation

Start date 19th January 2018
End date 21st January 2018

Venue
Madingley Hall
Madingley
Cambridge

Tutor Dr. Andrew Lacey
Course code 1718NRX037

Director of Programmes Emma Jennings

For further information on this course, please contact
Public Programme Coordinator, Clare Kerr clare.kerr@ice.cam.ac.uk or 01223 746237

To book
See: www.ice.cam.ac.uk or telephone 01223 746262

---

Tutor biography

Andrew Lacey holds a postgraduate degree in Library and Information Studies and a doctorate for work on King Charles I. From the late 1980s, he held posts as a professional librarian in a variety of Colleges and Universities, including College Librarian at Trinity Hall, Cambridge, Special Collections Librarian at the University of Leicester, and in the University of Cambridge, Faculty of Architecture and History of Art.

He is a Tutor for both the University of Cambridge, Institute of Continuing Education and the University of Oxford, Department for Continuing Education. His teaching and research has included work on the English Civil War, sixteenth and seventeenth-century English and European history, the relationship between art and power, and nineteenth and twentieth-century British and European history; he has a particular interest in the history of religion under the Tudors and Stuarts.

Andrew published his doctoral work on Charles I through the Boydell Press and has also published many articles and essays on aspects of sixteenth and seventeenth-century history, this includes the writing and tutoring of an online course for the University of Oxford on the English Civil War. He has also written and tutored online courses for the University of Cambridge, Institute of Continuing Education, on the early Tudors and Queen Elizabeth I. He is currently writing further online courses for Cambridge and for the University of Exeter. In among all this, Andrew recently completed a book on the English Civil War which was published last year by Amberley Publishers - never a dull moment!

Website: www.andrewlacey.co.uk
Course programme

Friday
Please plan to arrive between 16:30 and 18:30. You can meet other course members in the bar which opens at 18:15. Tea and coffee making facilities are available in the study bedrooms.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Activity</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>19:00</td>
<td>Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20:30 – 22:00</td>
<td>Defenders of the Faith – the Tudors and the Defence of Catholic England</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22:00</td>
<td>Terrace bar open for informal discussion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Saturday

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Activity</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>07:30</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>09:00 – 10:30</td>
<td>Marriages, Annulments and Reformations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:30</td>
<td>Coffee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00 – 12:30</td>
<td>Edward VI – England’s Josiah</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13:00</td>
<td>Lunch</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14:00 – 16:00</td>
<td>Free</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16:00</td>
<td>Tea</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16:30 – 18:00</td>
<td>Fires of Faith – Mary and the Counter-Reformation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18:00 – 18:30</td>
<td>Free</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18:30</td>
<td>Dinner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20:00 – 21:30</td>
<td>The Reformation of Images in Tudor England</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21:30</td>
<td>Terrace bar open for informal discussion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sunday

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Activity</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>07:30</td>
<td>Breakfast</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>09:00 – 10:30</td>
<td>England’s Deborah – Elizabeth I and the ‘Alteration of Religion’</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:30</td>
<td>Coffee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00 – 12:30</td>
<td>Challenging Gloriana! Puritans and Catholics in Elizabethan England</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12:45</td>
<td>Lunch</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The course will disperse after lunch
Course syllabus

Aims:

- To provide a broad narrative of the period 1485 – 1603
- To examine the causes, progress and significance of the English Reformation to 1603
- To discuss the different ways in which the Tudor monarchy interacted with the process of Reformation
- To consider some aspects of the effects of the English Reformation on the social and cultural life of Tudor England

Content:

Our course begins with the advent of the Tudor dynasty in 1485 after decades of civil war and the ways in which Henry VII sought to consolidate his rule and the continuance of the dynasty. Henry VII and, initially, Henry VIII were noted for their devotion to the Catholic Church and we will look at the ways in which the needs of the dynasty put this devotion under strain in the 1520s as Catherine of Aragon failed to produce a son and heir.

Henry used the language of Reformation to break with Rome and become head of the Church of England, but was Henry ‘a Catholic without the Pope?’ Was he ever a committed Protestant? We will examine the tortuous events of Henry’s later reign as conservatives and reformers within the government vied for his support.

From there we will look at the short, but important, reign of Edward VI in which a radical, reforming agenda was imposed on England, in particular we will look at the two Prayer Books of Thomas Cranmer and the reaction of the English people to this radical change to their traditional religious beliefs and practices.

Edward’s untimely death in 1553 eventually brought his half-sister, Mary, to the throne, after a disastrous attempt by John Dudley, Duke of Northumberland to replace her with his Protestant daughter-in-law, Lady Jane Grey. Mary, a devout Catholic, immediately threw into reverse the religious policies of her predecessors and attempted to restore the Roman Catholic faith in England. Probably the most well-known and significant of her policies was the violent persecution of English Protestants which led to the burning of over 200 of them.

Before considering the long and important reign of Elizabeth I, we will pause to consider something of the social and cultural effects of the Reformation, from the reformation of images, the consequences of the land changes association with the dissolution of the monasteries to some of the implications of replacing a religion of image, colour and symbol with that of the unvarnished Word.

In her turn, Mary was succeeded in 1558 by her half-sister, Elizabeth and it was during Elizabeth’s long and eventful reign that England emerged as the leading Protestant power in Europe. We will look at Elizabeth’s often troubled and dangerous youth, the ‘alteration of religion’ she initiated when she came to the throne, the opposition her government experienced from both Roman Catholics and Puritans and, of course, the threat from resurgent Catholicism on the Continent and, in particular, Catholic Spain.
Presentation of the course:

The course will consist of illustrated lecture/seminars. Students will be encouraged to engage with and discuss the material under consideration.

As a result of the course, within the constraints of the time available, students should be able to:

- Understand something of the key events and personalities of Tudor England and their relationship to the Reformation
- Have some insight into the ways the Reformation changed the social and cultural history of Tudor England
- Appreciate how the process of Reformation in England was affected by different Tudor monarchs
Reading and resources list

Listed below are a number of texts that might be of interest for future reference, but do not need to be bought (or consulted) before the course.

A good place to begin...

Rex, R. The Tudors.
(An excellent introduction to this fascinating dynasty, it's not too long and well illustrated.)

(An excellent, and short, introduction to the European Reformation.)

Background reading.

Bernard, G.W. The king's reformation : Henry VIII and the remaking of the English church.

Duffy, E. The stripping of the altars : traditional religion in England c.1400-1580.

Duffy, E. Fires of faith : Catholic England under Mary Tudor.

Duffy, E. Reformation divided : Catholics, Protestants and the conversion of England.

Collinson, P. The Elizabethan puritan movement.

Haigh, C. English Reformations : religion, politics and society under the Tudors.

Hicks, C. The king's glass : a story of Tudor power and secret art.

Knowles, D. Bare ruined choirs : the dissolution of the English monasteries.

MacCulloch, D. Tudor church militant : Edward VI and the Protestant reformation.
MacCulloch, D. Reformation : Europe’s house divided 1490-1700.

Scarisbrick, J. J. The reformation and the English people.

Sheils, W.J. The English Reformation 1530 – 1570.

Website addresses

http://www.tudorhistory.org/

http://www.tudor-history.com/

http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/british/tudors/english_reformation_01.shtml http://www.elizabethi.org/contents/

http://www.marie-stuart.co.uk/

Note Students of the Institute of Continuing Education are entitled to 20% discount on books published by Cambridge University Press (CUP) which are purchased at the Press bookshop, 1 Trinity Street, Cambridge (Mon-Sat 9am – 5:30pm, Sun 11am – 5pm). A letter or email confirming acceptance on to a current Institute course should be taken as evidence of enrolment.

Information correct as of: 21 August 2017